FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Greensboro Symphony Orchestra
announces new dates for rescheduled concerts:
Music of Queen! and An Evening with Matthew Morrison

GREENSBORO, NC (March 19, 2020) – On March 13, 2020, the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra (GSO) announced that many upcoming Symphony events and concerts would be rescheduled. This decision was made following Gov. Roy Cooper’s recommendation in reference to reducing the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19). The GSO is proud to announce the first of many new dates for rescheduled concerts:

Event Name	Original Date	New Date
Music of Queen	April 4, 2020	August 21, 2020
POPS: An Evening with Matthew Morrison	April 18, 2020	September 17, 2020

Welcoming one of the most accomplished classic rock cover groups, GSO is proud to share the stage with Windborne as they present the Music of Queen! Come and experience a high energy tribute to one of the most influential rock bands of all time, joined by the full symphonic forces of the GSO, at the Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts on August 21, 2020!

On September 17, 2020, at the Tanger Center, enjoy an evening of sophisticated entertainment provided by show-stopper and star of stage and screen, Matthew Morrison, in an evening you won't want to miss. Accompanied by the GSO, Morrison is sure to light up the stage and provide a diverse evening of the highest quality entertainment for all.

GSO is in the process of updating ticket information at greensborosymphony.org and ticketmaster.com. For more information, please visit GSO on their website or contact the GSO Box Office via email and phone at boxoffice@greensborosymphony.org and 336-335-5456 x224 or x223.
